

“Becoming Bedford County 1771”

“Becoming Bedford County 1771” is a unique living history event depicting life during the formation of Bedford County in the early 1770’s and celebrating 250 years of this beautiful and historic county.

The story of Bedford County in those early years will be told by knowledgeable living historians, historical lectures, and exhibits.

The event is going to be held at Old Bedford Village in Bedford, Pa.
July 3rd-4th 2021.

Historical interpreters will be discussing and demonstrating 18th century homesteading, hearth cooking, colonial taverns, 18th century surveying, domestic life, frontier rangers, and trades. There will be children’s games, a children’s craft, tomahawk throwing, and a local historian will be giving presentations on the history of how we became Bedford County (times TBD).
